TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS!

MAYOR'S OFFICE, MAYOR'S OFFICE, Alexandria, Va., June 8, 19-6. All persons owning or intending to keep my animal of the Dog or Canine species should come forward on or before JUNE TWENTY-FIFTH, 1906.

should come forward on or before JUNE TWENTY-FIFTH, 1906,
and take out a liceuse for the same from the Anditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring Dogs without the required liceuse are subject to a fine as the lawon the subject require of $3 or $5.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their liceuse, and that others pay on one or two Dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such Dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such case, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take our liceuses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for liceuses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

FRED, J. PAFF, Mayor.

license law. "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 12, 1906.

"A true sweetbread is perhaps the nost healthy meat that can be eaten," said a doctor, "but you are never able to get it. The sweetbread proper is the pancreas, which is one of the most effective agents in promoting digestion, but the sweetbread of trade is usually obtained from the throats of cattle and is what is called the thyroid giand, This gland rests against the windpipe, and, while its texture is similar to that of the real sweetbread, it has not the same beneficial qualities. But some butchers, in order to make money, pass off the salivary gland, that which furalaises the salivary located in the cheeks, for a sweetbread. This is the most inferior substitute of all. The paperase ferior substitute of all. The pancreas or real sweetbread, is a most dainty morsel. It is of triangular form, while the sweetbreads obtained from the throat are of an oval form. But what is the use of making people dissatis-They have been eating thyroid and salivary glands for sweetbreads for years and have been satisfied. But then they have never tasted the real thing."-Pittsburg Dispatch.

Money Value of St. Louis. When Louis IX., the saint, surrendered with his whole forces to the Saracens at Mausura on the 5th of April, 1250, 1,000,000 golden bezantsequal to half that number of the livres of the day-were demanded for his freedom. But the Moslems came down to 800,000 begants, and in the end by surrendering Damietta Louis got off for 100,000 marks-equal, roughly, to over £1,000,000 of today. These golden bezants contained about 30 shillings' worth of our gold, but to go to market with would buy then as much probably as 71/2 sovereigns now would. Were the scorner allowed to break forth here he would probably tell how this high priced and saintly carcass was treatby his people when Louis died at the slege of Tunis, twenty years later. Being hard up for embalmers, they had, secording to the journal of Aubery, to quarter and boll him down in separate caldrons and so sent but his whited skeleton to France.-London

The People of Great Britain, Ethnologically Great Britain is a mixture of many races, resulting from a succession of invasions. When the Ro mans invaded Britain the inhabitants were Celtic, mixed with an earlier Euskarian non-Aryan element. They continued to be mainly so until the fifth and sixth centuries, when the level parts of the country were overrun by German tribes. Then followed inva lous by the Danes and other Scandi navian tribes and lastly the Norman onquest. The inhabitants of England and the lowlands of Scotland, therefore, spring from an amalgamation of the original Celtic with German and scandinavian blood. Wales and the highlands of Scotland are still inhabited by descendants of the ancient Celtic tribes. The people of Ireland also are f Celtic origin, although there is an idmixture of many other races.

Cortliest Building In the Country. Which is the costliest building in America? Would you answer offhaud the New York state capitol at Albany? Your thoughts would turn nore likely to the national capitol at Washington or to the Congressional II brary. But the New York state capitol more than the national capitol and the library of congress together The Empire State capitol cost $24. 000,000, while the one at Washington, two acres larger, cost only $12,000,000 and the Congressional library only $7, 000,000. Our Empire State capitol cost as much as the nation paid for all Gilson Willets in Leslie's Weekly.

The Art of Forgetting. I have heard men and women say, "I could be happy now if I could only forget the past." Be kind to yourself forget the past." and "forget it." Do not try to do so in a labored, strenuous way, but gently suggest to yourself a dozen times a day if necessary that you are happy in the "eternal now" and not burdened down with disagreeable thoughts of the past. In learning the "art of forgetting" you will form the wholesome habit of remembering things worth knowing and thereby bring harmony, neace and contentment into your life. M. J. Lorimer in Suggestion.

A lady going from home for the day locked everything up carefully and for the grocer's benefit left a card on the back door.

If Tennis Balls Were Eggs How Careful We Would Be!

Hundreds of families go along every day exercising little or no care in the selection of their household supplies when they ought to be CAREFUL about the quality of goods ; CAREFUL to see that the goods 1 are perfect; CAREFUL that the price is not too high; CAREFUL that everything is as represented; CAREFUL that prices are not overstated.

There is one way of getting rid of this care and that is by dumping it all on us. We exercise such care in buying goods ourselves that even
